A Message from our Principal

Sydney Excursion

There is much excitement in the Stage 3 classes this week as the students prepare for their excursion to Sydney. The group will visit the Observatory, Taronga Zoo and Darling Harbour Aquarium to name just a few sights. What an amazing opportunity. It will be an early start and they need to be at school tomorrow at 5:45am with their expected return on Friday at 6:00pm.

Colin the Composter

On Monday we had a special visit from representatives from Wagga City Council, who presented the school a framed photo of the recycling vehicle named by the students at Ashmont, Colin the Composter. Each class got to have a look at the truck as they left the assembly. It is wonderful that our school is able to learn about and contribute to sustainability in the Wagga community.

Dancing Honour

We are extremely proud that our dance group has been invited to perform at the Aboriginal Lands Council meeting on Thursday, 6 December. The Council is celebrating its 40th year. This is a real honour and shows the high standard of performance achieved by Mrs Barratt and her students.

Colin Composter Visit

Today, Alice Kent from the Wagga Wagga City Council came to Ashmont Public School. She presented us with a photo frame with a photo of Colin Composter. Colin the Composter is the name of a truck which collects food and organic waste in the community. Ashmont Public School selected the name for truck. Alice told us that 79 schools put forward names and they had to narrow it down to 10. We won!

Nailed It!

Students from 3P and 6V completed the Thought for Food Project with a food challenge. In teams, the students needed to re-create a dish that had been previously prepared. The students were judged on food safety and hygiene practices and the dish that most looked like the one displayed. The judges were Michelle and Mel from Murrumbidgee Local Health District, they enjoyed the process and decided which team would NAIL IT!

The winning team consisted of Chloe, Caiden, Naquwon, Cooper, Cynthia, Tiahna and Kristy-Lea. Well done to everyone who participated.
